

Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary Recreational – Charter Fishing Working Group

Regional Public Engagement Meetings

The Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary Advisory Council working group for Recreational – Charter fishing is hosting a series of regional public interest meetings to facilitate information exchange and solicit region and site-specific input from the community.

Meetings are planned throughout the Florida Keys to allow greater community participation and to better facilitate region and site-specific input.

Each evening will follow the same format and draft agenda.

Meeting Dates and Locations

Wednesday February 1st 6:00pm-8:00pm
City of Marathon Council Chambers
9805 Overseas Highway
Marathon, FL 33050

Wednesday February 8th 6:00pm-8:00pm
Monroe County Public Library –
Islamorada
81830 Overseas Highway
Islamorada, FL 33036

Wednesday February 15th 6:00pm-8:00pm
Florida Keys Eco-Discovery Center
35 E. Quay Road
Key West, FL 33040

Draft Meeting Agenda

6:00-6:30	Welcome and Introduction
6:30-7:00	Round Table Discussion: Establishing a List of Best Practices for Blue Angler
7:00-7:15	Round Table Discussion: Recognition Techniques
7:15-7:45	Round Table Discussion: Improving Relationships with Recreational Anglers
7:45-8:00	Closing Summary & How to Stay Involved

For more information, please contact Nicole Uibel, FKNMS Staff Support, at (305)-809-4711 or Nicole.Uibel@noaa.gov